From "Por la carretera" exist a very funny videoclip made in México by Cynthia Calderón and Ramiro Jiménez from Digital Gordon Producciones whete the fabulour five LOS GLOSTERS are like cartoons. With the videoclip you don't have any doubt about what the lyric means "bellas señoritas, por la carretera, una raya más, ya no se cuantas van, bellas señoritas, un millón de rayas, por la carretera" ..... (Maybe in a diferent language can loose the double sense).

A TRIBUTE TO MASSIEL

"CANCIONES" have four of the icredible covers made by LOS GLOSTERS, sometimes from 60's classic hits and sometime from rare and hidden old songs. This time, the most famous (in the Spanish market) is the song used as title for the CD "Canciones", Massiel 1970's hit composed by Juan Pardo (former Los Brincos & Juan y Junior) with this song Los Glosters do a tribute to the Eurovision Song Contest 1968 winner.

Also great the cover from "Dime, Dime" by Los Ángeles or "Correr" by Los Flecós. The most curious and the song where they sing to Tarragona, his city is "Imperial Tarraco", a local hit of the 60' by Francisco Garrido.

Eight CANCIONES (songs) where do his private sound "pop beat ye-yé" from the 60 in the XXI Century. Or, how they parents get fun !!
